The Collect

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, give unto us the increase of faith, hope, and charity; and, that we may obtain that which thou dost promise, make us to love that which thou dost command. Through thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who with thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, liveth and reigneth God, world without end. Amen.

First Lesson

Micah 6:1-8

Hear what the LORD says: Arise, plead your case before the mountains, and let the hills hear your voice. Hear, you mountains, the controversy of the LORD, and you enduring foundations of the earth; for the LORD has a controversy with his people, and he will contend with Israel. "O my people, what have I done to you? In what have I wearied you? Answer me! For I brought you up from the land of Egypt, and redeemed you from the house of bondage; and I sent before you Moses, Aaron, and Miriam. O my people, remember what Balak king of Moab devised, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him, and what happened from Shittim to Gilgal, that you may know the saving acts of the LORD." "With what shall I come before the LORD, and bow myself before God on high? Shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves a year old? Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, with ten thousands of rivers of oil? Shall I give my first-born for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?" He has showed you, O man, what is good; and what does the LORD require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?

Second Lesson (during Morning Prayer only)

Philippians 4:4-13

Brethren: Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let all men know your forbearance. The Lord is at hand. Have no anxiety about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which passes all understanding, will keep your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, brethren, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. What you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, do; and the God of peace will be with you. I rejoice in the Lord greatly that now at length you have revived your concern for me; you were indeed concerned for me, but you had no opportunity. Not that I complain of want; for I have learned, in whatever state I am, to be content. I know how to be abased, and I know how to abound; in any and all circumstances I have learned the secret of facing plenty and hunger, abundance and want. I can do all things in him who strengthens me.

The Epistle

Galatians 5:16-24

Brethren: walk by the Spirit, and do not gratify the desires of the flesh. For the desires of the flesh are against the Spirit, and the desires of the Spirit are against the flesh; for these are opposed to each other, to prevent you from doing what you would. But if you are led by the Spirit you are not under the law. Now the works of the flesh are plain: fornication, impurity, licentiousness, idolatry, sorcery, enmity, strife, jealousy, anger, selfishness, dissension, party spirit, envy, drunkenness, carousing, and the like. I warn you, as I warned you before, that those who do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such there is no law. And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires.

The Holy Gospel

Glory be to thee, O Lord

St. Luke 17:11-19

At that time, on the way to Jerusalem [Jesus] was passing along between Samaria and Galilee. And as he entered a village, he was met by ten lepers, who stood at a distance and lifted up their voices and said, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us." When he saw them he said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." And as they went they were cleansed. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice; and he fell on his face at Jesus' feet, giving him thanks. Now he was a Samaritan. Then said Jesus, "Were not ten cleansed? Where are the nine? Was no one found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?" And he said to him, "Rise and go your way; your faith has made you well."

For Christians suffering persecution throughout the world.

For all those serving in our armed forces abroad; all those serving in dangerous civilian occupations, especially all police, fire, and rescue workers; and all those harmed by recent natural disasters, diseases, or attacks. We also pray for a just end to armed conflict throughout the world, especially in Ukraine.

We remember all victims of terrorism, especially on this 9/11 anniversary.

We also offer our prayers of thanksgiving for our Cathedral family here at St. John's, especially Margaret (Margie) Williams (9/14) on the anniversary of her birth and Cory & Shay Williams (9/12) on the anniversary of their marriage.

For the repose of the souls of the faithfully departed, especially Lisette Eggeson, Sadie Warren, Edward Borovay, and Helen Fodor; all Christians who have died from recent natural disasters, diseases, or attacks; all who have been murdered in the name of "mercy" or by abortion or infanticide; as well as all the new martyrs throughout the world.

Announcements:

Altar flowers for this week are given to the glory of God by Margie Williams in celebration of her birthday.

St. Nicholas of Tolentino was an Augustinian of the 13th Century who blessed bread for the Healing of the Sick. Today on his Feast, bread blessed through his intercession is available for all to take home to sick family, friends, or self. Please share with others asking that Our Savior may give healing in body, mind and spirit.

Starting September 18, Monday, there will be a week of clean-up for the cathedral and the buildings. A designated dumpster will be in the lower parking lot to take the accumulated refuse. Please let Kym Foster or Fr. Christian know when you can help. For those with classrooms or offices, this is the time to clean out spaces!

Please view the renewed website with current calendars, information, and events posted. www.stjohnscathedralquincy.com

Our 25th Anniversary of Dedication will be on Sunday, October 1. There is a printable flyer that you can use to invite former parishioners, friends, family, and anyone else to the re-dedication and reception on our website. Also, we have some printed for your use in the narthex.

The lecture series entitled Throne and Altar in Bede's Ecclesiastical History of the English People will be presented by Fr Neil J. Roy, STL, PhD, on October 16-19, 2023. This series on the Venerable Bede's History of the English Church and People (731) explores some of the towering figures and institutions that helped to shape the Christian Church in Britain from its origins until Bede's own lifetime. The series will also treat the iconography and devotional cultus of Our Lady of Walsingham (1061), a pre-Conquest Madonna still attracting pilgrims and visitors to her Norfolk shrine in the twenty-first century. Refreshments and child care will be provided.

For the Sunday Fellowship Hour after the 10 AM Mass, we have reinstated sign-up sponsorship for those who would like to enhance the Fellowship Hour with a special hot dish, baked goods, or even a breakfast. Please use the sheet provided in the narthex to sign up.

Jesus Christ, Yesterday, Today, and Forever!

Welcome to St. John Anglican Cathedral! Whether you are new to the area or a long-time resident, we warmly welcome you to the life of this community of Historic Christian Faith.

For those who have been Initiated (Baptized and Confirmed/Chrismated) in an Apostolic Catholic Church (Eastern Orthodox, Roman Catholic, Traditional Anglican, Oriental Orthodox, Polish National Catholic, Byzantine Catholic) and are free from manifest grave sin are invited to partake of the Holy Communion. Others are welcome to receive a blessing at the altar rail and may indicate this by crossing arms across their chest.
