The Collect

O LORD, we beseech thee, let thy continual pity cleanse and defend thy Church: and, because it cannot continue in safety without thy succour, preserve it evermore by thy help and goodness. Through thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who with thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, liveth and reigneth God, world without end. Amen.

First Lesson

Isaiah 12

You will say in that day: "I will give thanks to thee, O LORD, for though thou wast angry with me, thy anger turned away, and thou didst comfort me. Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and will not be afraid; for the LORD GOD is my strength and my song, and he has become my salvation." With joy you will draw water from the wells of salvation. And you will say in that day: "Give thanks to the LORD, call upon his name; make known his deeds among the nations, proclaim that his name is exalted. Sing praises to the LORD, for he has done gloriously; let this be known in all the earth. Shout, and sing for joy, O inhabitant of Zion, for great in your midst is the Holy One of Israel."

Second Lesson (during Morning Prayer only)

St. John 11:21-44

At that time, Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. And even now I know that whatever you ask from God, God will give you." Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again." Martha said to him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day." Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life; he who believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, and whoever lives and believes in me shall never die. Do you believe this?" She said to him, "Yes, Lord; I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, he who is coming into the world." When she had said this, she went and called her sister Mary, saying quietly, "The Teacher is here and is calling for you." And when she heard it, she rose quickly and went to him. Now Jesus had not yet come to the village, but was still in the place where Martha had met him. When the Jews who were with her in the house, consoling her, saw Mary rise quickly and go out, they followed her, supposing that she was going to the tomb to weep there. Then Mary, when she came where Jesus was and saw him, fell at his feet, saying to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was deeply moved in spirit and troubled; and he said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Lord, come and see." Jesus wept. So the Jews said, "See how he loved him!" But some of them said, "Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?" Then Jesus, deeply moved again, came to the tomb; it was a cave, and a stone lay upon it. Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, "Lord, by this time there will be an odor, for he has been dead four days." Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you would believe you would see the glory of God?" So they took away the stone. And Jesus lifted up his eyes and said, "Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me. I knew that thou hearest me always, but I have said this on account of the people standing by, that they may believe that thou didst send me." When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out." The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with bandages, and his face wrapped with a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unbind him, and let him go."

Thanks be to God

The Epistle

Ephesians 3:13-21

Brethren: I ask you not to lose heart over what I am suffering for you, which is your glory. For this reason I bow my knees before the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named, that according to the riches of his glory he may grant you to be strengthened with might through his Spirit in the inner man, and that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; that you, being rooted and grounded in love, may have power to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ which surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God. Now to him who by the power at work within us is able to do far more abundantly than all that we ask or think, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Holy Gospel
Glory be to thee, O Lord

St. Luke 7:11-16

It came to pass that Jesus went to a city called Nain, and his disciples and a great crowd went with him. As he drew near to the gate of the city, behold, a man who had died was being carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow; and a large crowd from the city was with her. And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her and said to her, "Do not weep." And he came and touched the bier, and the bearers stood still. And he said, "Young man, I say to you, arise." And the dead man sat up, and began to speak. And he gave him to his mother. Fear seized them all; and they glorified God, saying, "A great prophet has arisen among us!" and "God has visited his people!" And this report concerning him spread through the whole of Judea and all the surrounding country.

Praise be to thee, O Christ

MICHAELMAS: The Feast of St. Michael and All Angels is Friday of this week. St. Michael is one of the principal angels; his name, which means “Who is like unto God?” was the war-cry of the good angels in the battle fought in heaven against the enemy and his followers. Four times his name is recorded in Scripture: (1) Daniel 10:13ff.; Daniel 12; Jude 1:9; and Rev. 12:7. Following these Scriptural passages, Christian tradition gives to St. Michael four offices:

- To fight against Satan.
- To rescue the souls of the faithful from the power of the enemy, especially at the hour of death.
- To be the champion of God's people, the Jews in the Old Law, the Christians in the New Testament; therefore, he was the patron of the Church, and of the orders of knights during the Middle Ages, and is the patron of soldiers and police today.
- To call away from earth and bring men's souls to judgment.

The Feast also remembers the ministry of all the angels to us, including our Guardian Angels, whose role is seen in places like Matthew 18:10 and Hebrews 1:14.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

My good Angel, thou comest from heaven; God has sent thee to take care of me. Oh, shelter me under thy wings. Lighten my path, direct my steps. Do not leave me, stay quite near me and defend me against the spirit of evil. But above all come to my help in the last struggle of my life. Deliver my soul so that with thee it may praise, love and contemplate the goodness of God forever and ever. Amen

For Christians suffering persecution throughout the world.

For all those serving in our armed forces abroad; all those serving in dangerous civilian occupations, especially all police, fire, and rescue workers; and all those harmed by recent natural disasters, diseases, or attacks. We also pray for a just end to armed conflict throughout the world, especially in Ukraine.

We also offer our prayers of thanksgiving for our Cathedral family here at St. John's, especially Anne Scott (9/25) on the anniversary of her birth.

For the repose of the souls of the faithfully departed, especially Irma Brooks; all Christians who have died from recent natural disasters, diseases, or attacks; all who have been murdered in the name of "mercy" or by abortion or infanticide; as well as all the new martyrs throughout the world.

Announcements:

Altar flowers this week are given to the glory of God by the Foster family.

The Sanctuary light this week is given to the glory of God by Sue Bruce in loving memory of Clarence and Etta Goodapple.

There will be a Requiem Mass and Internment of Joan Blade on Saturday, September 30 at 10:00am. Gary and Joan Blade were founders of St. John Cathedral and were instrumental in establishing our present facilities. Having retired to Florida, they still hold a place in our history, and Joan will be interred in our columbarium.

The 2023 Life Chain will be held Sunday, October 1, from 2:30 pm to 3:30 pm on the south side of Broadway between 14th & 18th Streets in Quincy. Right to Life supporters will again join with pro-lifers in hundreds of other U.S. cities in a nationwide observance of the sanctity of life. Life Chain is a peaceful and respectful public witness by pro-life Americans standing for one hour praying silently for our nation and for an end to abortion. (Those not able to stand for one hour may bring lawn chairs.) Please join the pro-life community in making a visual statement of pro-life solidarity. Pick up your sign at the SW corner of 16th and Broadway between 2:00 and 2:30 pm and stand two arm-lengths apart. The National Life Chain signs are provided for each participant by the Right to Life of Adams County.

Our 25th Anniversary of Dedication will be THIS SUNDAY, October 1 at 9:00am. There is a printable flyer that you can use to invite former parishioners, friends, family, and anyone else to the re-dedication and reception on our website. Also, we have some printed for your use in the narthex.

There will be a festive reception after the Dedication Liturgy next Sunday, October 1. Please plan on staying and enjoying the fellowship with our guests and visitors. If you would like to bring a dish to share, please drop it off in the kitchen before the Mass.

The lecture series entitled Throne and Altar in *Bede's Ecclesiastical History of the English People will be presented by Fr Neil J. Roy, STL, PhD, on October 16-19, 2023, at 5:30pm each evening. This series on the Venerable Bede's History of the English Church and People (731) explores some of the towering figures and institutions that helped to shape the Christian Church in Britain from its origins until Bede's own lifetime. The series will also treat the iconography and devotional cultus of Our Lady of Walsingham (1061), a pre-Conquest Madonna still attracting pilgrims and visitors to her Norfolk shrine in the twenty-first century. Refreshments and child care will be provided.

Please view the renewed website with current calendars, information, and events posted. www.stjohnscathedralquincy.com
