The Collect

LORD, we beseech thee, grant thy people grace to withstand the temptations of the world, the flesh, and the devil : and with pure hearts and minds to follow thee, the only God. Through thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who with thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, liveth and reigneth God, world without end. Amen.

First Lesson

Amos 8:4-12

Hear this, you who trample upon the needy, and bring the poor of the land to an end, saying, "When will the new moon be over, that we may sell grain? And the Sabbath, that we may offer wheat for sale, that we may make the ephah small and the shekel great, and deal deceitfully with false balances, that we may buy the poor for silver and the needy for a pair of sandals, and sell the refuse of the wheat?" The LORD has sworn by the pride of Jacob: "Surely I will never forget any of their deeds. Shall not the land tremble on this account, and every one mourn who dwells in it, and all of it rise like the Nile, and be tossed about and sink again, like the Nile of Egypt? And on that day," says the Lord GOD, "I will make the sun go down at noon, and darken the earth in broad daylight. I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; I will bring sackcloth upon all loins, and baldness on every head; I will make it like the mourning for an only son, and the end of it like a bitter day. "Behold, the days are coming," says the Lord GOD, "when I will send a famine on the land; not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD. They shall wander from sea to sea, and from north to east; they shall run to and fro, to seek the word of the LORD, but they shall not find it."

Second Lesson (during Morning Prayer only)

St. John 7:37-53

On the last day of the feast, the great day, Jesus stood up and proclaimed, "If any one thirst, let him come to me [and drink. He who believes in me], as the scripture has said, 'Out of his heart shall flow rivers of living water.'" Now this he said about the Spirit, which those who believed in him were to receive; for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified. When they heard these words, some of the people said, "This is really the prophet." Others said, "This is the Christ." But some said, "Is the Christ to come from Galilee? Has not the scripture said that the Christ is descended from David, and comes from Bethlehem, the village where David was?" So there was a division among the people over him. Some of them wanted to arrest him, but no one laid hands on him. The officers then went back to the chief priests and Pharisees, who said to them, "Why did you not bring him?" The officers answered, "No man ever spoke like this man!" The Pharisees answered them, "Are you led astray, you also? Have any of the authorities or of the Pharisees believed in him? But this crowd, who do not know the law, are accursed." Nicodemus, who had gone to him before, and who was one of them, said to them, "Does our law judge a man without first giving him a hearing and learning what he does?" They replied, "Are you from Galilee too? Search and you will see that no prophet is to rise from Galilee." They went each to his own house.

The Epistle

I Corinthians 1:4-8

Brethren: I give thanks to God always for you because of the grace of God which was given you in Christ Jesus, that in every way you were enriched in him with all speech and all knowledge-- even as the testimony to Christ was confirmed among you-- so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift, as you wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ; who will sustain you to the end, guiltless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Holy Gospel

Glory be to thee, O Lord

St. Matthew 22:34-46

At that time: when the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, they came together. And one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question, to test him. "Teacher, which is the great commandment in the law?" And he said to him, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it, You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the law and the prophets." Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them a question, saying, "What do you think of the Christ? Whose son is he?" They said to him, "The son of David." He said to them, "How is it then that David, inspired by the Spirit, calls him Lord, saying, "The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at my right hand, till I put thy enemies under thy feet? If David thus calls him Lord, how is he his son?" And no one was able to answer him a word, nor from that day did any one dare to ask him any more questions.

THIS WEEK AT THE CATHEDRAL

There are NO SERVICES this week due to Synod in Orlando. In case of a local emergency, contact Subdeacon John Fodor at 217-440-5762.

There will also be NO CHESS CLUB this Saturday due to the chess tournament being held in Hannibal.

The lecture series entitled Throne and Altar in *Bede's Ecclesiastical History of the English People will be presented by Fr Neil J. Roy, STL, PhD, on October 16-19, 2023, at 5:30pm each evening. This series on the Venerable Bede's History of the English Church and People (731) explores some of the towering figures and institutions that helped to shape the Christian Church in Britain from its origins until Bede's own lifetime. The series will also treat the iconography and devotional cultus of Our Lady of Walsingham (1061), a pre-Conquest Madonna still attracting pilgrims and visitors to her Norfolk shrine in the twenty-first century. Refreshments and child care will be provided.

For Christians suffering persecution throughout the world.

For all those serving in our armed forces abroad; all those serving in dangerous civilian occupations, especially all police, fire, and rescue workers; and all those harmed by recent natural disasters, diseases, or attacks. We also pray for a just end to armed conflict throughout the world, especially in Ukraine.

We also offer our prayers of thanksgiving for our Cathedral family here at St. John's, especially Jim Sohn (10/8) and Sandy Fluent (10/14) the anniversary of their birth.

For the repose of the souls of the faithfully departed, especially Shirlee Northern and James DiPirro; all Christians who have died from recent natural disasters, diseases, or attacks; all who have been murdered in the name of “mercy” or by abortion or infanticide; as well as all the new martyrs throughout the world.

Announcements:

Altar flowers and the Sanctuary light this week are given to the glory of God by Michl and Sue Hiatt in loving memory of Dennis Hiatt.

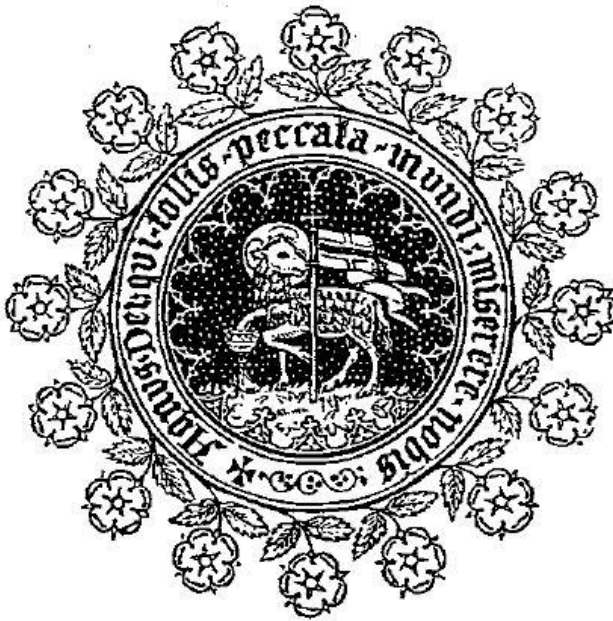

Both Bishop Fodor and Canon Tutor will be out of town this week. If you need in-person pastoral care (if someone needs a hospital visit, for example) before next Sunday, contact Subdeacon John Fodor at 217-440-5762. Administrative questions can be directed to Crista Fodor at 217-430-4456.

A SPECIAL THANK YOU to Canon Christian for all his work in preparation for the Dedication and Anniversary celebrations last Sunday! Thank you also to all who served in the altar party for the Divine Liturgy and all who did so much to prepare the Church and her appointments: the paraments, flower bed, work on the statue of St. Joseph, installation of new hardware, major works of cleaning and organizing, food preparations, and so much more. Your work helped to make this an especially memorable and fitting celebration and put our best foot forward to the community.

The initiative of Sanctuary Cities for the Unborn Ordinance is a new grassroots effort in an attempt to end abortion, at least on a local level. A federal law, the Comstock Act, prohibits the mailing and the receiving of abortion-inducing drugs and abortion paraphernalia. The local city council passage of an ordinance would ensure enforcement of the Comstock Act. Quincy is in the beginning stages of attempting to have an ordinance passed to enforce the Comstock Act and make Quincy a Sanctuary City for the Unborn. The petition supporting making Quincy a sanctuary city for the unborn is located in the narthex, and Bishop Fodor strongly encourages everyone who has not already signed the petition elsewhere to please sign it here today. See sanctuarycitiesfortheunborn.org for more information on this initiative.

Shawn Harmon, son of Marsha Norton, passed away Sept. 1, 2023, in Lakeland, Florida. Prayers for Shawn's family and for his repose are appreciated. Jesus, Lord of life, directs us to Himself, as the One Who bore our sorrows and felt our grief.

The key to the thermostat covers has been moved. It is in the same cabinet as before, except it is hanging on the left wall of the cabinet inside the door now. If you have any questions, contact Canon or Crista.
