The Collect

O ALMIGHTY and most merciful God, of thy bountiful goodness keep us, we beseech thee, from all things that may hurt us; that we, being ready both in body and soul, may cheerfully accomplish those things which thou commandest. Through thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who with thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, liveth and reigneth God, world without end. Amen.

First Lesson

Ecclesiastes 9:4-10

He who is joined with all the living has hope, for a living dog is better than a dead lion. For the living know that they will die, but the dead know nothing, and they have no more reward; but the memory of them is lost. Their love and their hate and their envy have already perished, and they have no more for ever any share in all that is done under the sun. Go, eat your bread with enjoyment, and drink your wine with a merry heart; for God has already approved what you do. Let your garments be always white; let not oil be lacking on your head. Enjoy life with the wife whom you love, all the days of your vain life which he has given you under the sun, because that is your portion in life and in your toil at which you toil under the sun. Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with your might; for there is no work or thought or knowledge or wisdom in Sheol, to which you are going.

Second Lesson (during Morning Prayer only)

Ephesians 6:1-9

Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. "Honor your father and mother" (this is the first commandment with a promise), "that it may be well with you and that you may live long on the earth. Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord. Slaves, be obedient to those who are your earthly masters, with fear and trembling, in singleness of heart, as to Christ; not in the way of eye-service, as men-pleasers, but as servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart, rendering service with a good will as to the Lord and not to men, knowing that whatever good any one does, he will receive the same again from the Lord, whether he is a slave or free. Masters, do the same to them, and forbear threatening, knowing that he who is both their Master and yours is in heaven, and that there is no partiality with him.

The Epistle

Ephesians 5:15-21

Brethren: Look carefully then how you walk, not as unwise men but as wise, making the most of the time, because the days are evil. Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is. And do not get drunk with wine, for that is debauchery; but be filled with the Spirit, addressing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody to the Lord with all your heart, always and for everything giving thanks in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to God the Father. Be subject to one another out of reverence for Christ.

The Holy Gospel

Glory be to thee, O Lord

St. Matthew 22:1-14

At that time : Jesus spoke to them in parables, saying, "The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a marriage feast for his son, and sent his servants to call those who were invited to the marriage feast; but they would not come. Again he sent other servants, saying, 'Tell those who are invited, Behold, I have made ready my dinner, my oxen and my fat calves are killed, and everything is ready; come to the marriage feast.' But they made light of it and went off, one to his farm, another to his business, while the rest seized his servants, treated them shamefully, and killed them. The king was angry, and he sent his troops and destroyed those murderers and burned their city. Then he said to his servants, 'The wedding is ready, but those invited were not worthy. Go therefore to the thoroughfares, and invite to the marriage feast as many as you find.' And those servants went out into the streets and gathered all whom they found, both bad and good; so the wedding hall was filled with guests. "But when the king came in to look at the guests, he saw there a man who had no wedding garment; and he said to him, 'Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding garment?' And he was speechless. Then the king said to the attendants, 'Bind him hand and foot, and cast him into the outer darkness; there men will weep and gnash their teeth.' For many are called, but few are chosen."

Announcements:

Thank you to Fr. Neil Roy and to everyone who worked to present and who attended last week's lecture series "Throne and Altar in Bede's Ecclesiastical History of the English People." The preparation of food, gathering of china and other cups and saucers, assistance with the livestream and other work all were essential. Remember that the presentations are available on St. John's Facebook page for those who weren't present but want to watch them.

THE ANGLICAN JOINT SYNODS, with the House of Bishops, the Primate, the Executive Committee and the delegates to the synods passed the following resolution: "The House of Bishops of the Anglican Church in America, in expectation and in desire for greater unity within Christ's Church, according to the will of God and the desire of our people, and with the support of the Primate and College of Bishops of the Traditional Anglican Church, seeks to establish the fullest unity possible with the Anglican Catholic Church while maintaining the integrity and unity of the Traditional Anglican Church, of which the Anglican Church in America is a Province; and, in so doing, develop committees to work out the practical aspects of the same." The ACC and the Traditional Anglican Church also agreed to establish a jurisdictional integrity agreement as a step toward organic unity and revisions to the ACA canons allowing the boundaries of the ACA dioceses to be changed by the House of Bishops. Watch for an upcoming Pastoral Letter from the bishop for more details on these and other wonderful steps forward!
