The Collect

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who didst will to restore all things in thy well beloved Son, the King of kings and Lord of lords : mercifully grant that all the kindreds of the earth, set free from the calamity of sin, may be brought under his most gracious dominion. Who with thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, liveth and reigneth God, world without end. Amen.

First Lesson

Jeremiah 10:1-10

Hear the word which the LORD speaks to you, O house of Israel. Thus says the LORD: "Learn not the way of the nations, nor be dismayed at the signs of the heavens because the nations are dismayed at them, for the customs of the peoples are false. A tree from the forest is cut down, and worked with an axe by the hands of a craftsman. Men deck it with silver and gold; they fasten it with hammer and nails so that it cannot move. Their idols are like scarecrows in a cucumber field, and they cannot speak; they have to be carried, for they cannot walk. Be not afraid of them, for they cannot do evil, neither is it in them to do good." There is none like thee, O LORD; thou art great, and thy name is great in might. Who would not fear thee, O King of the nations? For this is thy due; for among all the wise ones of the nations and in all their kingdoms there is none like thee. They are both stupid and foolish; the instruction of idols is but wood! Beaten silver is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz. They are the work of the craftsman and of the hands of the goldsmith; their clothing is violet and purple; they are all the work of skilled men. But the LORD is the true God; he is the living God and the everlasting King. At his wrath the earth quakes, and the nations cannot endure his indignation.

Second Lesson (during Morning Prayer only)

Revelation 19:11-16

Then I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse! He who sat upon it is called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he judges and makes war. His eyes are like a flame of fire, and on his head are many diadems; and he has a name inscribed which no one knows but himself. He is clad in a robe dipped in blood, and the name by which he is called is The Word of God. And the armies of heaven, arrayed in fine linen, white and pure, followed him on white horses. From his mouth issues a sharp sword with which to smite the nations, and he will rule them with a rod of iron; he will tread the wine press of the fury of the wrath of God the Almighty. On his robe and on his thigh he has a name inscribed, KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.

The Epistle

Colossians 1:12-20

BRETHREN, [we give] thanks to the Father, who has qualified us to share in the inheritance of the saints in light. He has delivered us from the dominion of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. He is the image of the invisible God, the first-born of all creation; for in him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or authorities--all things were created through him and for him. He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the first-born from the dead, that in everything he might be pre-eminent. For in him all the fulness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross.

The Holy Gospel

Glory be to thee, O Lord

St. John 18:33-37

[THEN] Pilate entered the praetorium again and called Jesus, and said to him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" Jesus answered, "Do you say this of your own accord, or did others say it to you about me?" Pilate answered, "Am I a Jew? Your own nation and the chief priests have handed you over to me; what have you done?" Jesus answered, "My kingship is not of this world; if my kingship were of this world, my servants would fight, that I might not be handed over to the Jews; but my kingship is not from the world." Pilate said to him, "So you are a king?" Jesus answered, "You say that I am a king. For this I was born, and for this I have come into the world, to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth hears my voice."

THE ANGLICAN JOINT SYNODS, with the House of Bishops, the Primate, the Executive Committee and the delegates to the synods passed the following resolution: "The House of Bishops of the Anglican Church in America, in expectation and in desire for greater unity within Christ's Church, according to the will of God and the desire of our people, and with the support of the Primate and College of Bishops of the Traditional Anglican Church, seeks to establish the fullest unity possible with the Anglican Catholic Church while maintaining the integrity and unity of the Traditional Anglican Church, of which the Anglican Church in America is a Province; and, in so doing, develop committees to work out the practical aspects of the same." The ACC and the Traditional Anglican Church also agreed to establish a jurisdictional integrity agreement as a step toward organic unity and revisions to the ACA canons allowing the boundaries of the ACA dioceses to be changed by the House of Bishops. Watch for an upcoming Pastoral Letter from the bishop for more details on these and other wonderful steps forward!
